

The decision by Sinclair to air the anti-Kerry documentary "Stolen Honor", just before the election is reprehensible. The airwaves are public property and this kind of manipulation goes against what i consider to be responsible use of those airwaves and a deliberate attempt to smear the candidates reputation. The FCC considers a 2 second glimpse at a bare breast, an offense, but ignoring corporate media manipulation of an election is far more foul.